

Functions of the UNRCO Zimbabwe

Strategic Planning and Policy Guidance

Support to the UNCT:

- Coordinate, drive, and refine the formulation of joint UN strategic framework
- Support and coordinate joint strategic planning efforts
- Review and analyze UN-wide policy and guidance and provide recommendations for application in Zimbabwe
- Conduct contextual and policy analysis to ensure the UNCT remains relevant and effective in an evolving national context
- Advisory services including on recovery and transitional processes

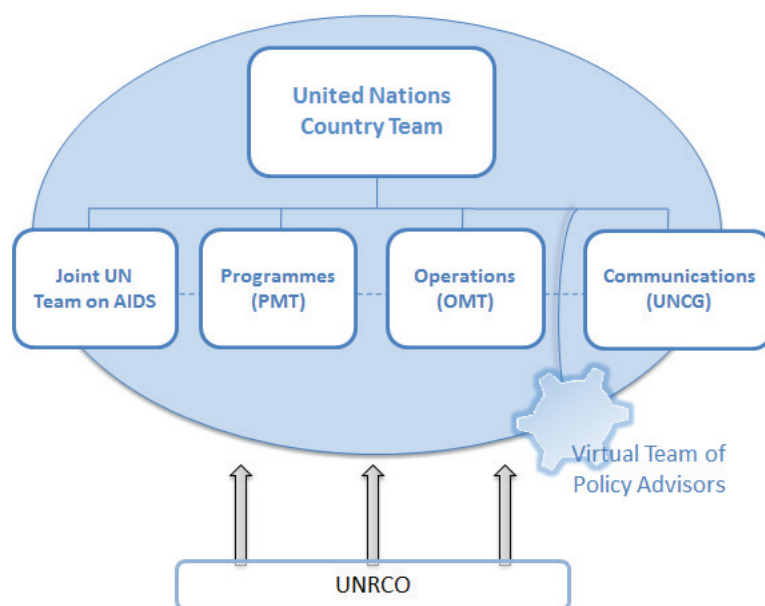

Coordination and Planning Support for Programme and Operations Management for the UNCT:

- Support to harmonization, alignment and coherence of joint UN programming for enhanced results
- Support to streamlined business processes for harmonised operations and reduced transaction costs
- Support Chairs of inter-agency coordination groups in exercising their functions with integrated work planning, results reporting, and agenda setting
- Lead and support inter-agency M&E efforts
- Drive knowledge management & information sharing

Communications & Advocacy Support for the UNCT:

- Coordinate, harmonise and articulate internal and external advocacy and communications
- Facilitate communications on common issues with UN regional and headquarters
- Support the integration of Non-Resident Agencies
- Support joint resource mobilisation efforts
- Facilitate UN inter-agency collaboration

The Management and Accountability System of the UNCT in Zimbabwe

Composition of the UNRCO Zimbabwe

The UN Resident Coordinator's Office has capacities to provide support to the UNCT in the following areas:

- Strategic planning for enhanced UN coherence
- Policy advice on transition and recovery
- Joint UN communications and advocacy
- Monitoring and evaluation of joint UN programme frameworks
- Integration of Non Resident Agencies
- Joint resource mobilisation and reporting
- Secretariat and administrative support to inter agency coordination groups