Foreword

The work of the UN entities, under the auspices of “Delivering as One” is geared towards maximizing efforts and efficiency for the achievement of programme results under the 2016-2020 Zimbabwe United Nations Development Assistance Framework (ZUNDAF).

The 2016-2020 ZUNDAF pursues six result areas: Food and Nutrition; Gender Equality; HIV and AIDS; Social Services and Protection; Poverty Reduction and Value Addition; and Public Administration and Governance with 15 outcomes explicitly linked to national priorities and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

In 2016, the UN entities in Zimbabwe collectively delivered over USD 400 million in support of national development priorities and addressing humanitarian challenges. The UN system is appreciated the strong cooperation and partnership with many development partners and we are grateful for their support and funding.

In the first year implementation of the 2016-2020 ZUNDAF, in addition to live saving interventions that reached over two million people with food assistance; the food and nutrition security result area has supported close to 140,000 people with rehabilitation and community asset building programmes.

On gender equality, the UN in Zimbabwe together with national and international partners has seen through the end of the pervasive practice of child marriages by the constitutional court of Zimbabwe and engaged over 930 traditional leaders in an effort to end violence against women and girls.

Concerted and consistent engagement in HIV and AIDS has provided and sustained anti-retro-viral therapy to over one million people living with the virus enabling them to lead health and productive lives.

In support of national initiatives to advance good governance, the UN entities facilitated an extensive multi-stakeholders consultation engagement on Universal Periodic Review process in which Zimbabwe has accepted 142 recommendations for implementation. The UN entities continued their support to strengthening of national institutions such as human rights, gender, peace and reconciliation, media and election commissions.

Under poverty reduction and value addition, the UN entities joined the Government and Development Partners in the formulation of the Interim Poverty Reduction Strategy and launched a multi-donor and multi-year resilience building fund which supported 85,000 vulnerable households with income generating activities in 2016. The UN also facilitated the review of the National Labour Migration Policy and the launch of the diaspora policy to engage Zimbabweans who live abroad in their national development.

In the social services and protection area, UN entities supported results include: increased enrollment by 24% of children with disabilities in primary and secondary education (from 40,226 to 49,692). Established a USD 680 million health development fund to strengthening health systems and scaled-up our engagement on social protection and WASH sectors.

In addition to implementing development programmes under ZUNDAF, the United Nations and its agencies were at the forefront of responding to the drought and flood disasters. For example, through Humanitarian Response Plan (HRP), covering April 2016-March2017, reached nearly two million most vulnerable people (65% of the overall HRP target) with USD 215 million. In response to the flood national disaster, we mobilized USD 1.6 million form the UN Central Emergency Response Fund to support over 32,600 vulnerable communities with lifesaving relief support.

Going forward, the United Nations system in Zimbabwe will continue to support building and strengthening of national capacity to achieve national development priorities, the SDGs, and reduce underlying causes of vulnerabilities to external shocks.

More emphasis will be given to poverty reduction, resilience building to enable communities withstand recurrent external shocks due to climate change. We will also continue to support national effort to achieve gender equality at all levels and strengthening good governance and public administration including support to the implementation of the 156 accepted UPR recommendations.

We remain committed to further enhance development coordination and deepening cooperation among all stakeholders for a better Zimbabwe.

Working Together for Inclusive Growth & Sustainable Development

In 2016, the ambitious and transformative 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development came into effect, coinciding with the first year of the implementation of the 2016-2020 Zimbabwe United Nations Development Assistance Framework (ZUNDAF). The UN in Zimbabwe officially became a Delivering as One country in March 2016, joining 50+ United Nation Country Teams (UNCTs) around the world who have committed to deliver better results together.

The formal adoption of Delivering as One approach serves as critical enabler for the UN agencies in Zimbabwe to work together in the five areas of policy and programme, budgetary frameworks, operations, communications and advocacy, and, leadership.

UN in Zimbabwe consists of 14 UN Funds, Programmes and Specialized Agencies who are resident in the country, and an additional 9 Non-Resident Agencies. Bretton Woods Institutions – the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund – also participate in a number of joint UNCT initiatives.

This document comprises of short profiles of UN Entities that are resident in Zimbabwe, as an introductory overview to the friends and partners of the UN. This document provides a snapshot of the “parts” that constitute the UN in Zimbabwe. The 2016-2020 Zimbabwe United Nations Development Assistance Framework (ZUNDAF), co-chaired by Government and the United Nations, is the strategic document that UN Entities channel their support to national development efforts in six result areas. The six result areas, fully aligned to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), are Social Services and Protection; Poverty Reduction and Value Addition; and Food and Nutrition. The remaining three areas are Gender Equality; HIV and AIDS; and Public Administration and Governance.

Fifteen outcomes have been elaborated along the 2016-2020 ZUNDAF six result areas explicitly linked to national development priorities under the Zimbabwe Agenda for Sustainable Socio-Economic Transformation (ZimAsset).

In 2016, the UN, with generous financial support from development partners and in collaboration with the Government, delivered USD 403 million in development grant through the 2016-2020 ZUNDAF.

UN Resident Coordinator’s Office in Zimbabwe

“The Resident Coordinator System is the main mechanism to coordinate the United Nation System’s operational activities for development, as well as emergency, recovery and transition in programme countries.” - Functioning of the resident coordinator system, including costs and benefits: report of the Secretary General, 2008

The UN Resident Coordinator
In Zimbabwe, the UN Resident Coordinator is responsible for coordinating and providing leadership to the UN Country Team in strategy setting, planning, implementation and monitoring and evaluation of development programmes as outlined in the ZUNDAF and humanitarian emergency response.

The UN Resident Coordinator also provides leadership on joint communications, advocacy, and resource mobilization efforts. In addition, the UN Resident Coordinator also leads on humanitarian response and he is also the Designated Official for Safety and Security, Resident Representative of UNDP and Director of the UN Information Centre.

The UN Resident Coordinator’s Office
The Resident Coordinator’s Office supports the UN Resident Coordinator and UN Country Team in the following 10 core coordination functions:

1. Strategic analysis and planning on UN development and humanitarian support;
2. Oversight of the UN country development and humanitarian programming cycle;
3. Representation and support to UN entities in Zimbabwe including non-resident agencies;
4. Support to national development and humanitarian coordination mechanisms and processes;
5. Development and management of shared operational support services to enhance value for money;
6. Support disaster risk management, preparedness and response;
7. Lead, coordinate joint UN communications and advocacy;
8. Coordinate human rights analysis and perspectives;
9. Joint resource leveraging, partnership and mobilization;
10. Facilitate general UN oversight and management

The UN Resident Coordinator’s Office also provides inter-agency support to the UN Country Team and its various sub-groups to effectively deliver on the 10 core coordination functions.

The UN Resident Coordinator’s Office is supported partly by the UN Development Office Coordination Office (DOCO) as well as through annual contributions from UN agencies for joint communications, advocacy and coordination activities.

Since 2011, substantive capacity of the UN Resident Coordinator’s Office in Zimbabwe has been supported and enhanced with the consistent and valuable support received from the Swedish International Development Cooperation (SIDA). The partnership with the Government of Sweden has been critical to ensuring that the UN Resident Coordinator’s Office has the resources necessary to fulfill its mandate on the achievement of UN coherence and results to positively impact the lives of Zimbabweans.
FAO leads and contributes to the food and nutrition security of the 2016-2020 ZUNDAF result areas making a difference to the lives of 230,375 with an average annual programme delivery of USD 21 Million. FAO’s areas of engagement in Zimbabwe are centered on three pillars:

1. Strengthening policy and institutional frameworks
2. Enhancing agricultural productivity & competitiveness
3. Increasing resilience & uptake of climate smart agriculture

Achieving food security for all is at the heart of FAO’s efforts – to make sure people have regular access to enough high-quality food to lead active, healthy lives.

The Organization’s three main goals are: the eradication of hunger, food insecurity and malnutrition; the elimination of poverty and the driving forward of economic and social progress for all; and, the sustainable management and utilization of natural resources, including land, water, air, climate and genetic resources for the benefit of present and future generations.
